In baseball our boys have done well, having won all the games that they have played so far.

We are happy to hear that the Coleman school has been closed on account of whooping cough, and therefore the games with that school have had to be called off.

Should Be Reserved

A suggestion has been made by those interested in Crows' Nest Lake as a popular summer retreat, to memorialize the government to have a certain portion of land adjoining the lake reserved for the use of the public as a place for standing horses and rigs and also as an approach to and landing from the lake.

The site most desirable for the above purposes would be on the old construction townsite, the northwest quarter of section 9, west of the fifth meridian, in Township 8. This property comprises about nine to twelve acres, and is at present the only place along the lakeshore affording conveniences.

Crows' Nest Lake is destined to become one of the most popular pleasure and holiday resorts in the Province of Alberta, and the government should not overlook the necessity of reserving at least a convenient right-of-way to the lake.

Last week a number of parties visited the lake for the purpose of arranging boat-house sites, camp sites and fishing camps. We understand that they were so favorably impressed with the opportunities offered that they will install a number of gasoline launches, canoes, tents, etc., for the use of the increasing number of visitors to this beauty spot.

The Order of Owls Organize

The Order of Owls was instituted in Blairmore on Sunday night last with a membership of one hundred and eighty-six. About ninety members of the order were in attendance at the organization, which promises to be a close rival on a par with some of the older lodges of the metropolis.

On Sunday afternoon, June the 15th, the charter closes, when the organizers, Messrs. Seale and Julian, will complete their mission by installing the officers of the new lodge.

The lodge is at present occupying temporary quarters in the Miners' Hall, but hopes to secure the use of some larger building for the accommodation of its members.

Excursions to Frank

For the benefit of pleasure seekers the C. P. R. will have the west-bound "Fyer" stop at Frank on Sunday mornings. Special excursion rates of fare and a third for the round trip from points between Frank and Lethbridge have been granted, and it is expected that the number of visitors to the Sanatorium, the popular health and pleasure retreat of The Pass, will far exceed that of last season.

The management of the Sanatorium are leaving no stone unturned in their efforts to make the stay of visitors pleasant and the cuisine and surrounding appearances of the hotel accommodating and inviting.

Drowning at Bellevue

A drowning fatality occurred at Bellevue on Monday, when the little four-year-old son of J. Janigo met a watery grave. It appears that the little child had been playing around a narrow bridge crossing the river and tumbled over into the swift current. An alarm was immediately made and the dragging of the riverbed ensued under the supervision of the mounted police, but so far the body has not been located.

Some strange coincidences are quoted in connection with the drowned child and relatives. On a couple of previous occasions the same child had been rescued from drowning, once by his oldest brother, a boy of about eight years, who risked his own life in a plunge after his brother after noticing several older boys lacking in their promptness to rescue.

An uncle of the child was killed in the mine at Bellevue a few weeks ago, and the child's mother is now reported in a delicate state of health.

Fernie Italian May Have Met Foul Play

Fernie, B. C., June 4.—A member of the Italian colony named Ferner Dominguez, who has been employed at the coke ovens and who resided on the hill behind the ovens, disappeared about a week ago and no trace of him could be found until last Sunday when his body was discovered in the waters of Coal Creek a mile above the city and opposite the high line switch of the Crows' Nest Coal Company's railway.

He was supposed to have considerable money and had seemed for some time past to be on the verge of insanity. When the body was drawn from the creek it was seen that his pockets were pulled out and several cuts were noticeable on his head and face. Those suggested foul play but might have been caused by driftwood in the creek.

An inquest was held in the afternoon before Coroner Wilkes.

Blake Blairmore A Stopping Point

It is high time for the Blairmore board of trade to revive their agitation with the C.P.R. for the installation of a stand-pipe and the making of Blairmore as a regular stopping point for the Soo-Spokane "flyer."

As will be remembered, the board under the able presidency of R.W. Coulthard, took the matter up with the railway company about two years ago. At that time and since then several gratifying and encouraging replies have been received from the company, the last stating that a stand-pipe would be installed here immediately the water system was completed and an extension to the most convenient point put in by the town.

Since that time the matter has been let drop, in spite of the fact that the water system has been completed and the town is in a better position to supply a stand-pipe than any other stopping point in the province.

The importance of the central position of Blairmore fully warrants the making of it a regular stopping point for the Soo-Spokane "flyer," and it is hoped that both the board of trade and the town council will get busy and bring the matter to a successful issue.

How Blairmore Aspires To Baseball Honors

Thursday afternoon's baseball game between the town and Cement Works gave our artist a chance to get busy, and we reproduce a few of the many funny positions assumed by the Blairmore aspirants for baseball honors.

The second shows Payette, a star player, looking to umpire Brisco for advice.

In the centre is Ollie Olson, having been driven back by more Providence, just in an act of being hit by the ball at the hand of Pollock.

The lower picture is Mattson holding a "swell" position, from which pose he purposed making a record dash; and No. 1 shows Pollock collapsed beneath Pether at the finish of the seventh inning.

Arrangements have been made with the C. P. R. by the Oldfellows of Lethbridge for excursion rates to Blairmore on July 24th, for a fraternity picnic. The three lodges of Lethbridge as well as lodges from towns in that neighborhood, including Grey's Lakes, Taber, Raymond and Cardston, and intermediate points, will join in the big celebration.

The Oldfellows of The Pass will endeavor to give the visitors a loyal reception, and it is expected the attendance will be the largest known to Southern Alberta.

Sports and other picnic features will be on the programme.

Dick Marshall to

Box Frank Peters

Arrangements have been made for a twelve round boxing contest between Frank Peters, of Butte, Montana, and Dick Marshall, of local fame, the bout to be pulled off at the Blairmore open house on Saturday, June 14th.

Peters has quite a creditable record, having fought and won against Ben Mitchell in 4 rounds, Ted Jones in 20 rounds, Youff Brown in 10 rounds, and to give the public a chance, as well as a number of other bouts against men who had gained high ring honors. He last year served as boxing instructor of Anacanda Athletic Club, Butte, Montana. He is 6 ft. 1 in. in height, 165 lbs. weight and 21 years of age. Marshall weighs 128, is 5 ft. 10 inches in height, 23 years of age and has not yet met defeat.

Some boy friends of Darwin once plotted a surprise for the great naturalist. Capturing a centipede they glued onto it a beetle head, the wings of a butterfly and the long legs of a grasshopper. Then putting the creature in a box they took it to Darwin and asked him what it could be, explaining that they had caught it in the fields.

Did it hum like a you caught it he asked.

Oh, yes, sir, they answered, nudging one another, it hummed like everything.

Then, said the philosopher, it is a hummingbird.

KING GEORGE'S VALETS

About the Royal Gentleman's Gentlemen

His Majesty has three valets—a chief valet and two assistant valets.

His Majesty has been with the royal wardrobe, to attend to the king in the royal dressing room and to take all instructions concerning the king's clothes which he has given him either directly by his Majesty or by one of the private secretaries.

His Majesty's clothes are kept in a large room adjoining the dressing room. The walls of the room are lined with wardrobes which are divided into two sections—one section contains the king's uniforms, and the other his Majesty's ordinary morning, walking and evening suits of clothes.

Overnight the chief valet is instructed regarding the uniforms. If any, and the suits of clothes which the king will require for wear the following day and these are placed by the assistant valets in the royal dressing room. Before a suit or uniform is sent into the royal dressing room it is inspected by the chief valet to see that it is properly brushed and ironed and ready to wear.

The king may be noted, never wears the same suit two days running. The chief valet, however, does not wear the same suit often than once in the week, and when it had been worn about two or three times it would be put out of the royal wardrobe.

George customarily rises at seven o'clock, when he takes a cup of light coffee, which the chief valet brings him directly the king enters his dressing room. His Majesty then has his bath, which is always a cold one, and an assortment of linen on the dressing table, and places the boots or shoes the king intends to wear on a mahogany boot stand, and then retires.

The king dresses himself without the aid of a valet, except on the putting on a uniform, when the chief valet is generally in attendance.

After the king has dressed, the chief valet superintends the packing of His Majesty's luggage, which is done by the assistant valets. A list of everything that is to be packed is made out by the chief valet, and on the arrival of the luggage at the destination the list is checked over by the chief valet, whilst the portmanteaus are being unpacked.

The chief valet is a well educated and very well informed man. He is a first-rate linguist, speaking French, German and Italian in addition to his native tongue perfectly. He has travelled all over the world with the king, and is known and held in high esteem by all the great European monarchs, from whom he has received during his visits to their country many tokens of their esteem. King George rarely or never tries on a suit of clothes, and seldom is seen by the tailors who have the honor of his Majesty's custom.

The chief valet informs to order any new clothes he desires the chief valet of the fact, who gets patterns for the king's tailor, and has the clothes made. When his Majesty has selected the patterns, the chief valet gives the order to the tailor, who has the clothes made. When ready for trying on, are fitted on a dummy figure of the king.

The chief valet inspects the suit when it is fitted on the model, and gives the tailor all the necessary directions concerning it. The suit is generally fitted on the model three times.

Lord Curzon of Kedleston has been noted for his penchant for making cutting and ironing his clothes.

Many former tea and coffee drinkers who have mental power to perform day after day, have found a better capacity and greater endurance by using Postum instead of tea and coffee.

A Western woman writes: "I had drank coffee for about twenty years, and finally had what the doctor called 'coffee heart.' I was nervous and extremely dependent; had little mental or physical strength left, my kidneys troubled and my system generally in a state of collapse. (Tea is just as harmful because it contains caffeine, the same drug found in coffee.)

The first noticeable benefit derived from the change from coffee to Postum was the mental action of the nerves and bowels. It took two weeks my heart action was greatly improved and my nervous system.

"Then I became less dependent, and the desire to be active again showed proof of renewed physical strength and mental alertness."

"I am steadily gaining in physical strength and have been able to give up my old mental work and had to give up on account of coffee, but since using Postum I am doing brain work with less fatigue than ever before."

Name given by Canadian Postum Co., Windsor, Ont.

Postum now comes in new, concentrated form called Instant Postum.

It is regular Postum so prepared at the factory that only the soluble portions are retained.

A spoonful of Instant Postum with hot water, and sugar and cream to taste, produces instantly a delicious beverage.

MADE HIM ANXIOUS

In a country town in the English Midlands there is a man who is so noted for his conversational abilities that his acquaintances avoid giving him unnecessary opportunities to talk.

One cold morning this man rode up to an hotel in the neighborhood, and as the guests were finishing breakfast, he dismounted, walked in, and, leaning on his usual long legs, and declared that he was so cold that he could hardly talk.

Just then no never came to the man who was present stepped up to the landlord and taking him by the coat, said:

"Sir, I—have my bill brought as soon as possible."

"What is the matter, my dear sir?" inquired the anxious landlord. "Has anything happened?"

"Nothing, nothing. Only I want to get away from here before that man flees out."

He was a man who gave little and got much. Today, for instance, he had got a clothes-brush, a basin of water, a towel, and a chair, and had given nothing at all. Treating his bedroom bell. The hotel attendant smiled and said:

"The fourth time he had been summoned, and he didn't hurry. I thought you were never coming, and I was waiting when the attendant appeared at last. Are you nicknamed Slow-coach?"

"No, sir, answered the attendant. They call me Billiard Cue."

"Billiard Cue?" repeated the visitor, frowning. Then an inspiration dawned. Ah! because you are a stick, I suppose? Wrong again, sir!"

retorted the attendant. "It's because I work better with a good tip."

BABY'S OWN TABLETS

USED FOR TEN YEARS

When one medicine is used in a home for a number of years it is the strongest testimony as to the value of that particular remedy. Thousands of mothers have been using no other medicine but Baby's Own Tablets for years—in fact many of them say they have no other medicine in their house. Concerning them, Mrs. J. H. Kunkle, Beaverton, Ont., says: "I have used Baby's Own Tablets for ten years and would not be without them as long as there are children in the house. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont."

His Excuse

What did you mean, John, by telling the Smiths that you married me because I was such a good cook?

"I had to make some excuse, my dear, replied John, and I didn't know what else to say."

A Mild Pill for Delicate Women.

The most delicate of women can undergo a course of Parnell's Vegetable without any fear of unpleasant consequences. Their action, while wholly effective, is mild and agreeable. No violent pain or purging follows their use, as thousands of women who have used Parnell's Tablets are able to testify. Therefore, strongly recommended to women, who are more prone to disorders of the digestive organs than men.

Mothers ruled entirely upon the temperance of his diet for the re-establishment of his health. What use do you make of your physician's advice, the king to him one day. We chat together, sir, said the poet. He gives me his prescriptions; I never follow them; and so I get well.

The new minister in a Georgia church was delivering his first sermon. The negro janitor was a critical listener from a back corner of the church. The minister's sermon was eloquent, and his prayers seemed to cover the whole category of human ills.

After the services one of the deacons asked the old negro what he thought of the new minister.

"Don't you think he offers a good prayer, Joe?"

At last he suddenly does, boss. Why, dat man axed de Lord for things dat de under preacher didn't even know he had!

Sore Back, No Fun, Cure It To-Day, Rub on "Nerviline!"

It Will Cure Your Aching Back, Stop Your Suffering, Keep You Well

Back Sufferers, Read Below

"I am just so delighted with the comfort Nerviline brought me that I can't but tell you about it all the time."

For ages I have been subject to an aching, dragging feeling at the base of the spine. When attacks came on it made my whole body ache. It appeared as if I had taken cold and a soreness developed all through my muscular system. When in Winnipeg one day a friend spoke to me of Nerviline, and I bought a 50c. bottle. That was the best half-dollar I ever spent.

It is hard to convince some people of what a really good medicine can do, but I can't but say that I have found it so. I have tried all sorts of muscular pain cures, but Nerviline is even better. It cures a cramp in ten seconds and the headache and upset or sour stomach, nothing could exceed Nerviline. I think it should be kept in every home as a protection against sudden ill, and also to cure ill that resist other treatments."

I stole a lawyer to do my defending for me, the gentleman what stole de chicken."

Certainly not, my dear, answered the astonished old gentleman.

"I am just so delighted with the comfort Nerviline brought me that I can't but tell you about it all the time."

For ages I have been subject to an aching, dragging feeling at the base of the spine. When attacks came on it made my whole body ache. It appeared as if I had taken cold and a soreness developed all through my muscular system. When in Winnipeg one day a friend spoke to me of Nerviline, and I bought a 50c. bottle. That was the best half-dollar I ever spent.

It is hard to convince some people of what a really good medicine can do, but I can't but say that I have found it so. I have tried all sorts of muscular pain cures, but Nerviline is even better. It cures a cramp in ten seconds and the headache and upset or sour stomach, nothing could exceed Nerviline. I think it should be kept in every home as a protection against sudden ill, and also to cure ill that resist other treatments."

An old carrier was summoned before the judge for stealing a chicken. He was on hand early, and before the judge had pronounced the sentence, his presence, asked his name. My name is Johnnie, your honor, said the carrier. And you stole a chicken, said the judge. No, sir, replied the carrier. I stole a lawyer to do my defending for me, the gentleman what stole de chicken."

Certainly not, my dear, answered the astonished old gentleman.

An Interesting Trip

Edmonton, Alta., June 2.—Fifty-three hundred miles, largely through virgin territory, is the extent of a trip undertaken by James K. Cornwall of Edmonton, until recently representative in the provincial parliament for Athabasca, accompanied by Emerson Hoag of Chicago, B. K. Miller of Milwaukee, C. A. Lupert, a moving picture expert, and George B. Fraser of Edmonton. They are now on the way to the hinterland of Alberta and British Columbia, and will penetrate the Yukon territory, travelling by steamboats, rafts and canoes and hiking across the country on foot.

The itinerary shows a continuous journey from Edmonton to Fort McPherson, thence across the Rocky mountains by way of Fort Portage, down the Poucepune river to the Yukon river and up that stream to Dawson and White Horse, returning by way of Vancouver. The first stage of the trip, from Athabasca to Fort McPherson, will be by canoe, after which the explorers will travel to Fort McPherson by steamboat. The journey to the Canadian Rockies will be made in motor cars, which there is a portage of 60 miles across the backbone of the continent, the rest of the way being covered on rafts.

Mr. Lupert, who will make photographic records of the first organized invasion of the little known districts north of the 55th parallel, was engaged in a similar capacity throughout the Russo-Japanese war. His pack included 10,000 feet of film, weighing 200 pounds. Several dramas, with primitive Indian as actors, will be staged in the north country, and it is also expected to take photographs of big game hunters and fur traders in the north.

Michel scored two goals in the first half. In the second half the Bellevue boys had conditions more in their favor and made the visitors feel that they had some work cut out for them. Michel played an out-field game from the start of the second half, which was their only chance to keep the score down. After about fifteen minutes March scored the first goal for the locals, and from then on there was something doing. The second was following a penalty kick, and about five minutes before time Bellevue scored an extra, the game ending with a score of 3 to 2 in favor of Bellevue. The Bellevue band was in attendance and rendered some choice selections. Some of the ladies from Michel did good boosting for the Michel boys in the first half, but not so much in the second.

For School Teachers Only

A young woman failed to pass her examination for appointment as teacher, in the public school of a small town. Her mother was terribly disappointed and decided to interview one of the examiners. "I am sorry, madam," the man said, "that your daughter did not pass in her examinations, but there is nothing I can do about it. You know, madam, that no one is to blame but herself."

"She to blame!" exclaimed the woman, wrathfully. "Well sir, perhaps you don't know that the examiners asked her questions about lots of things that happened years and years before she was born."

Young Heroes Honored

Edmonton, Alta., June 2.—Johnny Skinner, eight years of age, and his brother Willie, a year younger, were signally honored by the Women's Institute of St. Albert, a suburb of Edmonton, when C. E. Lewis, superintendent of institutes, presented them medals for saving Ross Smith, five years of age, from drowning in Sturgeon river last winter. The boys made the rescue at the risk of their own lives.

The presentation, which took place at a concert last night, was made in the presence of an audience of 500, who cheered the little fellows occupying chairs on the platform with their playmate, whose life they saved, and many women came forward and hug and kissed them. Mrs. Smith, mother of the rescued child, again thanked the boys. Mr. Lewis commended the boys for their bravery in face of danger, saying they are entitled to more fitting recognition.

Johnny Skinner, who replied for himself and his brother, said they did not do anything more than other boys would do under similar circumstances. He then told the story of the accident and rescue.

"My brother and I were playing on the ice some distance away," he said, "when we heard cries. We looked up the river and saw a boy in the water, holding to the ice, and crying for help. We ran to where he was and saw it was our cousin. The ice was badly broken and we had a lot of hard work, but we got Ross on the ice. We took him home and then went to our own home."

"I don't know who told the ladies of the institute about what happened, but they heard of it and fixed up the concert to give us the medals. We are glad we saved Ross."

Messrs. Dawson & Green have secured several large plumbing contracts at Hillcrest.

Killed in Auto

Accident at Calgary

Edmonton Bulletin

On Prize Fighting

Edmonton, Alta., June 2.—"The blow that killed McCarthy," says the "Edmonton Bulletin," editorially, commenting upon the tragedy at Calgary on Victoria Day, "ought to be the death blow to prize-fighting in Alberta. Prize-fighting is a brutal and brutalizing occupation. It consists of pounding another man's constitution into ruins, or having one's own constitution battered into ruin, for money."

"It is also a business by which the fight promoter amasses wealth at the physical cost of men who are willing to pamper each other for a share in the dollars which can be extracted from those who are willing to pay to witness the exhibition."

"It is likewise the means by which a raft of bums and loafers keep a living which they are too lazy to work for."

"The basis of the business is the fact that people will flock to see a fight, just as they would a battle— not that the majority of them approve either a fight or a battle, but that they 'want to see what is going on' and that the fight or the battle takes the place of some other and more wholesome form of entertainment."

"Albion can get along without the prize-fighter, the fight promoter and the hanger on, and the majority of the people in the province would like to see this trio sent elsewhere. If the laws provide the legal force necessary to put a stop to these so-called 'boxing contests,' it is up to the officers of the law to exercise this power. If the law does not give them the power it is time to give them more power. It is time to change the law."

Oh, Wicked Calgary

Judge Scott is holding a session of his Criminal Court in Calgary. He has 14 criminal cases before him.

Two will face a charge of murder, four will be charged with attempted murder, one with arson and one with attempted rape. If all these criminals are convicted and sentenced to the extreme limit of the law their total years of imprisonment would amount to over 500 years.—Truro News.
